

Excellent career opportunity in CONTRACTOR SALES

We are looking for a career-oriented individual to contribute to our contractor sales in our Portland, OR division. This is an excellent opportunity to build a high-income career with unlimited earnings potential.

Qualified candidates will possess:

- At least three years of lumber sales/trader experience in the multifamily residential construction industry
- Knowledge of the construction process and building materials
- Ability to read plans
- High energy with a solid work ethic
- Ability to thrive in a competitive environment where your own initiative is key
- Organizational and problem solving skills
- Commission based motivation

We will support your career growth with base plus commission compensation, financial strength, and a results-driven winning team. We offer an excellent benefits package and a 401(k) Plan with company stock option.

Please submit your resume to Tammy Hooper, HR Director at Thooper@shelter-products.com.